Jockey Notter, who has been idle all winter, is getting into condition for a summer engagement.

Governor Glasscock, of West Virginia, permitted the anti-poolroom bill, passed by the Legislature of that state, to become a law without his signature.

The program book for the first week of the coming meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club at Norfolk is in the hands of the printer, and will be ready for distribution in a few days. It provides for six races daily and guarantees $2,000 in added money, an average of about $350 per race.

The latest applicants for stabling at Norfolk are Thomas Burns, W. C. Saunders, William Garth, David Dunlop, Thomas Hatfield, James McLaughlin, Silas Veitch, J. T. Temple, S. B. Billings and Theodore Coles. Woods Garth is already at the track, having arrived from Albemarle County, Va., with a string of seven, including Superstition, Tasteful, Ticket of Leave and four two-year-olds. Tasteful, Ticket of Leave and four two-year-olds, at the annual meeting of the Turf and Field Club officers were elected as follows: Perry Beimont, president; F. K. Sturgis, vice-president; John E. Cowdin, treasurer; Henry W. Bull, secretary; H. A. Buck, assistant secretary; R. T. Wilson, R. B. Van Cortlandt and Middleton S. Burrill, executive committee; J. Searle Barclay, Jr., Henry W. Bull and J. G. Livingston, house committee; F. K. Polk and Winthrop Burr, governors.

Morton and Charles Schwartz, who have raced horses on the flat for several years, have joined the United Hunts and formed a racing partnership with H. S. Page, a steward of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. The combination has adopted the name "Mr. Archdale" for purposes of racing, and they will confine themselves to the cross-country sport. Mr. Page will do the training and he and his partners will do the riding. Far West will be the main reliance of the stable.

FLYING WOLF BEATS JIM BASEY.

El Paso, Tex., March 4.—There were fully 3,500 lovers of racing at Juarez track today and the success of four public favorites made the day a profitable one for them. The stellar attraction was a bandicap at three-quarters in which the good California three-year-old, Jim Basey, met Flying Wolf and other good local three-year-olds. The race proved easy for Flying Wolf. He speedily raced into a good lead and held it throughout. Jim Basey met with some early interference, causing him to lose considerable ground, but ran a creditable race. He came again after the interference in resolute fashion, but could not get near the flying leader. A future meeting between these two stars will be awaited with interest, as the California contingent now here consider their favorite to be better than he has shown in racing here.

Barney Oldfield, of automobile fame, was a visitor today for the first time, en route to his home in Los Angeles, and under the tutelage of his old friend, Barney Schreiber, profited to quite some extent by the victory of Vreeland from the Schreiber barn, in the fifth race.

Candleberry, winner of the last race, developed one of the most extensive plunges of the meeting. Candleberry summer of the last race, developed one of the most extensive plunges of the meeting. William Walker has arranged to ship his stable of a carload of horses, about a dozen head, to Baltimore about March 14, and rest there until the spring meeting at Pimlico begins. He has about decided not to race Stanley Fay again at Juarez. Next winter Mr. Walker will come back here.
